MRS. NATION'S FIRST LECTURE.

The Joint-Smasher Well Received in Lexington, Ky.
LEXINGTON, Ky., March 28.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas joint smasher, made her initial bow as a public lecturer here last night in the Lexington opera house, in the presence of an audience of about 400 people. She was introduced by Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, President of the State Association W. C. T. U., and came forward with a Bible under her arm. She had the audience stand while she offered a prayer.

Her address was well received. It was to the mothers of Lexington, beseeching them to wear plain clothes, watch their husbands and close the saloons. She said women ought to spend more of their time out of doors watching their husbands, keeping them out of gambling resorts and runshops. Mrs. Nation held her audience with numerous witticisms and is apparently a success as a talker.
